Section 3. Reference to the Texas Election Code in these Supplemental Rules is for guidance only. The Election Code is incorporated by reference into these Supplemental Rules only to preserve the State's interest in ensuring the integrity in its elections process.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP, FILLING VACANCIES, AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Section 1. The voting membership of the Executive Committee shall be composed of the County Chairman (hereinafter referred to as the County Chair), who shall be the presiding officer, and the Precinct Chair from each Tarrant County election precinct. Each member shall be entitled to one vote by personal attendance at Executive Committee meetings. There shall be no voting by proxy.

Section 2. The County Chair and Precinct Chairs shall be elected biennially in the Republican Primary or elected to fill a vacancy by the Executive Committee. To be eligible for the Party Offices of County Chair and Precinct Chair, a candidate shall be a registered voter of Tarrant County as of the day the application for candidacy is filed. A candidate for Precinct Chair shall be a resident of the precinct to be a candidate for or to serve as a precinct chair for that precinct.

Section 3. Write-In Candidates for Precinct Chair shall be allowed. To be entitled to a place on the list of write-in candidates, a candidate shall otherwise be qualified for the office of Precinct Chair and shall make a declaration of write-in candidacy that is filed with the County Chair and such declaration shall be filed not later than 6:00 p.m. of the fifth day after the date of the filing deadline for the general primary election. A write-in vote for the office of Precinct Chair shall not be counted unless the name written in appears on the list of write-in candidates.

Section 4. In the event of a vacancy in the office of County Chair, the elected Secretary of the Executive Committee shall call a meeting of the Executive Committee to be held within twenty (20) days of the occurrence of the vacancy for the purpose of electing a new County Chair. No Vice-Chair or other Party officer shall assume the position of "acting chair." If a majority of the membership of the Executive Committee does not attend a meeting to elect a new County Chair, then subsequent meetings shall be held as soon as practical, but in no event later than twenty (20) days from the date of the failed meeting.

Section 5. The County Chair shall create a Precinct Chair Vacancy Application consistent with this rule that includes the Oath of Affiliation. Precinct Chair Vacancy Applications shall be received by the County Chair or Party Secretary no later than forty-eight (48) hours before the

Any Precinct Chair may nominate any applicant(s) who is eligible to fill any vacancy after the beginning of the current term of office (begins 20 days after the primary runoff and ends 20 days after the next primary runoff). In such case, an additional requirement for an eligible applicant is that they cannot have affiliated with another political Party for the current term of office. All members of the Executive Committee have the right, in debate, to bring forward facts and circumstances about a prospective Precinct Chair they think should be taken into consideration by the Executive Committee members prior to a vote to confirm a new Precinct Chair. Section 6. Section 6. A. Any Appointive or Elected Officers of the Executive Committee, Area Leaders, or members of the State Republican Executive Committee who are not Precinct Chairs shall be recognized as members of the Executive Committee with the same privileges and responsibilities of Precinct Chairs including floor privileges, and the right to speak in debate at Executive Committee meetings, but excluding the right to make motions or vote.

No ratification shall be required to appoint a Parliamentarian.

Section 3. If a vacancy occurs in the office of County Chair, the appointive officers shall serve only until the election of a new County Chair.

Section 4. The County Chair may appoint assistants to the Appointive Officers as needed, who shall be subject to the same requirements, ratification, and removal procedures as the Appointive Officers.

Notice of the election or ratification to fill a vacancy shall be included in the call of the next regular or special meeting of the Executive Committee. A vacancy shall occur in the event an officer dies, resigns, or no longer resides in the county, precinct, or district, or is no longer qualified by having affiliated with another Party. Any resignation shall be deemed to be effective immediately when given to the County Chair whether given in writing or orally.

Area Leaders shall present all applicants who have submitted a valid and accurate application, including in the case of two or more applications that have been received for the same Precinct.

In the event Area Leaders are unable to nominate applicants during an Executive Committee meeting for any reason, any voting member of the Executive Committee may make the nomination(s). Area Leaders may express their preferences in a contested race once the nominations have been submitted.

The Party Secretary, Assistant Secretary, or their designee may assist in confirming the eligibility of vacant Precinct Chair applicants, at the request of a Precinct Chair or Area Leader.

B. Composition of the Committee:

Information on any measure that will be on the ballot may be included. Any questionnaires or interview questions developed for this process shall be objective and consistent and based on the Principles in the Platform and platform planks that relate to the relevant local government.

2. The Voter's Guide shall be impartial. The Committee shall not make endorsements. 6. The Committee shall subdivide into as many subcommittees as is practicable based on geographic areas that may include several local jurisdictions that represent communities of interest for that area. Each committee member shall serve on at least one subcommittee and each subcommittee shall elect its own Chair at its first meeting.

7. Any qualified person may join the committee at any time after the committee is organized by written notice to the Committee Chair.

E. Funding of Operations: The committee shall not raise or spend money independent of the Executive Committee. Request for funds, including a detailed budget, may be

These elections shall take place at the Special Election/Ratification meeting.

Should the County Chair fail to appoint the Chairman of a standing committee, within 30 days of the adoption of the Supplemental Rules, or the date on which the position becomes vacant, the Executive Committee shall make these appointments at the next regular Executive Committee meeting.

Section 3. The Resolutions and Rules Committees shall have seventeen (17) members each, including the Committee Chair and the County Chair or their designated Vice-Chair. In addition, the General Counsel shall be a nonvoting ex-officio member of Rules. Thirteen members of each committee shall be elected proportionally from among the members in each State Senate District in a caucus to be held at the next regularly scheduled meeting after the adoption of this provision, with the following number of members by caucus: Senate District 9 shall elect six (6) members, Senate District 10, three (3) members, Senate District 12, one (1) member, Senate District 22, two (2) members, and Senate District 23, one (1) member. Section 4. Members of all the Standing Committees, except the Rules and Resolutions Committees, shall be appointed by the Committee Chair in consultation with the County Chair within fourteen (14) days of the ratification of each Committee Chair. The first meeting of each newly constituted Standing Committee shall be called by the Committee Chair or the County Chair, within thirty (30) days after the committee is formed.

Section 5. A majority of a Standing Committee's members shall constitute a quorum. Each Standing Committee's Chair shall appoint a secretary to record the minutes of the committee's activities. If it is not possible to provide such notice of any meeting at least 48 hours before the meeting is called to order, the meeting shall be announced to those present at the committee or forming body's preceding meeting prior to that meeting's adjournment. Any action taken at a Standing Committee or Subcommittee meeting held without such notice shall not be valid unless ratified at a properly noticed meeting.

Section 9. The existence of a Standing or other Committee does not preclude a member of the Executive Committee from bringing a motion that would otherwise be under the purview of any such Committee directly to the floor, as provided for in Article IX, Section 6. The presiding officer of any meeting of the Executive Committee may at their discretion, and without leaving the chair, make the motion to refer any pending item to a Standing or Special Committee.

Section 10. A standing committee member shall forfeit his/her position on the committee if he/she fails to attend three consecutive meetings, unless excused by the Committee Chair.

ARTICLE VII SPECIAL COMMITTEES

The County Chair or Executive Committee may create such Ad Hoc Committees as may be deemed necessary, to assist in carrying out duties not specifically assigned to a Standing or Organization Committee, with a defined purpose and a defined duration. Individuals need not be members of the Executive Committee to serve on an Ad Hoc Committee unless otherwise stipulated by action of the Executive Committee. All members of any committee shall have affiliated with the Republican Party during the current and immediately preceding election cycle.

ARTICLE IX MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held every odd-numbered month and shall alternate between the second Thursday and the second Saturday of the month. In an emergency, the County Chair may reschedule a regular meeting to occur earlier or later in the same month, subject to the notice requirements of Section 4. The County Chair has the discretion to cancel one regular meeting during the term of office.

Section 2. The order of business for all regular and special meetings shall be published on the County Party website and included in the call of the meeting by the Chair.

Section 3. Special meetings may be called as needed by the County Chair. Special meetings may also be called by a petition of 25% of the members of the Executive Committee submitted to the County Chair. If the County Chair does not act on such petition within seven (7) days of receipt, any member of the Executive Committee may call the meeting directly by mailing notice to the last known address of the members of the Executive Committee, pursuant to the terms of Section 5.

Section 4. There shall be a special Election/Ratification Meeting that shall be called by the County Chair within thirty (30) days of the adoption of these Rules. The notification requirement is ten (10) days prior to the meeting. The purpose of this meeting shall be to hold elections for all offices created under these Rules except for Secretary and Assistant Secretary and the ratification of all appointed positions that are required to be ratified by these Rules. The County Chair shall send a list of all appointees in the call to the meeting. The first order of business shall be the filling of vacancies in the office of Precinct Chairs. Subsequently no business other than elections, ratifications, and announcements shall occur at this meeting.

Section 5. No less than fourteen (14) days' notice shall be required for all Executive Committee meetings, except for the Election/Ratification Meeting and in the event of a stated emergency, in which case two (2) days' notice shall be required. (All designation of times shall be considered as the postmark date, or the sent date for electronic notifications.)

Section 6. New Business. Any new business, except that presented by the County Chair or any Standing Committee, shall be submitted by a minimum of three (3) Precinct Chairs by notice to the County Chair, by email or in person, no later than ten (10) days prior to the Executive Committee Meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed. The County Chair or his/her designee shall post any proposed resolution on the Party website. This rule may be suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present. The requirements of Article XII supercede this rule.

Section 7. If a meeting is called, and the County Chair and Vice Chairs fail to attend, the Secretary shall call the meeting to order and preside while the members (a quorum being present) elect a temporary chair to preside at that particular meeting. If the County Chair, Vice Chairs, and Secretary fail to attend, any Tarrant County Precinct Chair may call the meeting to order at the appointed hour and preside while the members (a quorum being present) elect a temporary chair to preside at that particular meeting. The temporary chair shall have the same authority as the County Chair has at any meeting.

Section 8. At meetings of the Executive Committee, all incumbent elected officials of the Republican Party of Texas, together with such other persons as may be designated by the County Chair, shall have the privileges of the floor, but without voting rights.

Section 9. District Caucus Meetings: The Caucus Secretary shall prepare minutes which shall include the roll of the members present and deliver the minutes to the Party Secretary upon adjournment. Copies shall be made available to the County Chair and Secretary of the District or Executive Committee.

The Vice-Chair(s), along with any current or past SREC members or past County Chairs who reside in Tarrant County, shall also be non-voting members, but shall not be counted in determining or achieving quorum. The Committee shall meet at the call of the Chair and shall advise the Chair on matters of interest to the Executive Committee between Executive Committee meetings. The Chair may, at his/her discretion, request consent from the Advisory Committee on any action to be taken between Executive Committee meetings, in which case the Advisory Committee, by majority vote, may provide consent on the Executive Committee's behalf. Such consent, if granted, shall be reported to the next regular or special meeting of the Executive Committee, and may be reversed by a three-fifths (3/5) vote of the Executive Committee at that meeting.

ARTICLE XI PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall be the parliamentary authority governing the Executive Committee and Officers in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with these Supplemental Rules, or the Rules of the Republican Party of Texas.

ARTICLE XII AMENDMENTS

These Supplemental Rules may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Executive Committee present and voting at a meeting of the Executive Committee, a quorum being present. The Executive Committee is to receive notice of any proposed amendment by mailing or emailing written notice to each voting and non-voting member of the Executive Committee at least fourteen (14) days in advance of a regular or special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XIII APPENDICES AND STANDING RULES

The Appendices attached on separate pages are not part of these Supplemental Rules but are included for reference. Therefore, the Appendices are not required to be voted on by the Executive Committee. Appendices include but are not limited to relevant definitions and references to relevant sections of Robert's Rules of Order and Texas Law. The Appendices shall be maintained by the Rules Committee.

Any Standing Rules passed by the Executive Committee shall also be attached by reference but are not part of these Supplemental Rules.

APPENDIX A DEFINITIONS REFERENCED

Several potentially unfamiliar terms used in the Tarrant County Executive Committee Supplemental Rules are defined in other documents the Supplemental Rules include by reference or elsewhere in Texas Code. Rather than include full definitions in the Supplemental Rules themselves, which would increase the size of the document and also have to be kept current (by action of the Executive Committee), those definitions are included here.

These definitions are for reference only. If any of them change in the source material, they will be updated here as soon as possible, but the source definition is always the one that applies, unless the Supplemental Rules stipulate otherwise.

From Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, 11th Edition:

1. Delivery of Meeting Notice: “When notice is required to be sent, unless a different standard is specified that requirement is met if written notice is sent to each member either: 1. by postal mail to the member's last known address; or by a form of electronic communication, such as e-mail or fax, by which the member has agreed to receive notice.” (pg. 89)

2. Previous Notice of Motions: “A requirement of previous notice means that announcement that the motion will be introduced— indicating its exact content as described below shall be included in the call of the meeting at which the motion will be brought up, or, as a permissible alternative, if no more than a quarterly time interval will have elapsed since the preceding meeting, the announcement shall be made at the preceding meeting.” (pg. 121)

3. General and Special Orders: “An order of the day, as stated above, is a particular subject, question, or item of business that is set in advance to be taken up during a given session, day, or meeting, or at a given hour, provided that no business having precedence over it interferes. Orders of the day are divided into the classes of general orders and special orders. A special order is an order of the day that is made with the stipulation that any rules interfering with its consideration at the specified time shall be suspended except those relating to: (a) adjournment or recess; (b) to questions of privilege; (c) to special orders that were made before this special order was made; or (d) to a question that has been assigned priority over all other business at a meeting by being made the special order for the meeting as described on page 371. An important consequence of this suspending effect is that, with the four exceptions just mentioned, a special order for a particular hour interrupts any business that is pending when that hour arrives.” (pg. 364-365)

From the Texas Administrative Code: 1. Election Cycle: “A single election and any related primary or runoff election.” (TAC §20.1(6))
